

Midst all the myriads of stars in the sky

Walti Dux, Dez. 2003

The musical score is written for a single melodic line in treble clef, key of D major (two sharps), and 6/8 time. The melody consists of eighth and quarter notes, with some measures containing rests. Chord symbols (D, A, D, Em, F#m, A) are placed above the staff to indicate the harmonic accompaniment. The lyrics are written below the staff, with three verses of text. The first verse is followed by a second line of music and lyrics. The third line of music and lyrics begins with a repeat sign (z) and is followed by a final line of music and lyrics.

1. Midst all the my-riads of stars in the sky one star is spe-cial to see
2. Midst all the my-riads of stars in the sky o-ver the sta-ble shines
3. Midst all the my-riads of stars in the sky one star shines down on the hay it brings you a mess-age from Heav'n on high of won-der and joy yet to be.

hushed are all voi-ces all noi-ses and strife. All the world's cla-mour is gone.
old folk and young folk up-lif-ted by joy. God's love is born on this day.
